

“I want to pass down
my recipes. Not my diabetes.”

I learned the hard way what can happen when you eat the wrong foods. So now I cook my grandma's recipes with healthier ingredients. It's an easy change that keeps my diabetes under control, and it helps reduce my whole family's risk for problems like diabetes and heart disease. I think Grandma would approve.

Live Like Your Life Depends On It.